

Stories of Redemption

Tragedy

Genesis 37-50

5 of 6

1. How has God redeemed a tragedy in your life?
2. Why do we have more difficulties dealing with the consequences of other people's sin on our lives than we do with the consequences of our own sin on our lives?
3. Give examples of other "victims" (people who were negatively affected by someone else's sin) in the Bible? Give references. How did they deal with the situation?
4. A victim of tragedy will never get past that tragedy until that person stops seeing themselves as a victim. What can be done to change their "victim" outlook?
5. Why is it so hard to see difficult situations as opportunities?
6. Is there any bitterness you hold on to? What can you do to release it?

northeast group questions

May 22, 2011

Stories of Redemption

Tragedy

Genesis 37-50

5 of 6

1. How has God redeemed a tragedy in your life?
2. Why do we have more difficulties dealing with the consequences of other people's sin on our lives than we do with the consequences of our own sin on our lives?
3. Give examples of other "victims" (people who were negatively affected by someone else's sin) in the Bible? Give references. How did they deal with the situation?
4. A victim of tragedy will never get past that tragedy until that person stops seeing themselves as a victim. What can be done to change their "victim" outlook?
5. Why is it so hard to see difficult situations as opportunities?
6. Is there any bitterness you hold on to? What can you do to release it?

northeast group questions

May 22, 2011