

It's All About Love

John 13:34-35

13 of 13

Growing up, we didn't have a lot of money, so we used to get outfield deck seats (aka "the cheap seats") to see the baseball games at the [Houston] Astrodome. Most of the people buying the cheap seats did so to save more money for beer. After the first few innings, they were drunk, and by the time the seventh-inning stretch rolled around, there would be beer mixed with peanut shells on the floor, spilled beer down your back, and a brawl two rows over and back to the left. It was ugly out there. As a kid, I learned from a lot people that we were sitting with the "bad people."

There was one consistent drunk fan named Batty Bob. He was a self-proclaimed Houston Astros mascot. He'd come to all the games wearing a rainbow wig, and he'd lead slurred cheers in the stands. I remember one time my dad went out to sit and talk with Batty Bob. He spent the whole game with Bob, then walked him out to the parking lot to bring him home with us. I was more than confused, because this guy was one of the "bad people." When we got home, my dad came to me and explained how God loved Batty Bob. I remember thinking, Really? Batty Bob? And he stayed with us for a few days to get back on his feet. This is when I started to realize that God did not despise these people; he dearly loved them. Chris Seay, [The Gospel According to Jesus (Thomas Nelson, 2011), p. 147]

northeast daily reading

August 28, 2011

It's All About Love

John 13:34-35

13 of 13

Growing up, we didn't have a lot of money, so we used to get outfield deck seats (aka "the cheap seats") to see the baseball games at the [Houston] Astrodome. Most of the people buying the cheap seats did so to save more money for beer. After the first few innings, they were drunk, and by the time the seventh-inning stretch rolled around, there would be beer mixed with peanut shells on the floor, spilled beer down your back, and a brawl two rows over and back to the left. It was ugly out there. As a kid, I learned from a lot people that we were sitting with the "bad people."

There was one consistent drunk fan named Batty Bob. He was a self-proclaimed Houston Astros mascot. He'd come to all the games wearing a rainbow wig, and he'd lead slurred cheers in the stands. I remember one time my dad went out to sit and talk with Batty Bob. He spent the whole game with Bob, then walked him out to the parking lot to bring him home with us. I was more than confused, because this guy was one of the "bad people." When we got home, my dad came to me and explained how God loved Batty Bob. I remember thinking, Really? Batty Bob? And he stayed with us for a few days to get back on his feet. This is when I started to realize that God did not despise these people; he dearly loved them. Chris Seay, [The Gospel According to Jesus (Thomas Nelson, 2011), p. 147]

northeast daily reading

August 28, 2011

It's All About Love

John 13:34-35

13 of 13

This week's Daily Bible Reading will consist of verses that speak to loving others.

- DAY ONE – John 13:34-35
- DAY TWO – Matthew 5:43-48
- DAY THREE – John 15:9-17
- DAY FOUR – 1 Corinthians 13:4-8
- DAY FIVE – 1 John 3:11-24

Memory Verse:

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."
-- Jesus (John 13:34-35)

It's All About Love

John 13:34-35

13 of 13

This week's Daily Bible Reading will consist of verses that speak to loving others.

- DAY ONE – John 13:34-35
- DAY TWO – Matthew 5:43-48
- DAY THREE – John 15:9-17
- DAY FOUR – 1 Corinthians 13:4-8
- DAY FIVE – 1 John 3:11-24

Memory Verse:

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."
-- Jesus (John 13:34-35)