

Abundant Life Demands a Connection

John 15:1-7

9 of 14

How we admire the obedience a dog shows to its master! Archibald Rutledge wrote that one day he met a man whose dog had just been killed in a forest fire. Heartbroken, the man explained to Rutledge how it happened. Because he worked out-of-doors, he often took his dog with him. That morning, he left the animal in a clearing and gave him a command to stay and watch his lunch bucket while he went into the forest. His faithful friend understood, for that's exactly what he did. Then a fire started in the woods, and soon the blaze spread to the spot where the dog had been left. But he didn't move. He stayed right where he was, in perfect obedience to his master's word. With tearful eyes, the dog's owner said, "I always had to be careful what I told him to do, because I knew he would do it."

(Our Daily Bread, January, 19)

Although we are much more valuable to God than is a dog to his master, God desires that we have that same level of unquestioning obedience.

Our Daily Bible Reading this week will focus on passages that shine light on the subject of obedience.

- DAY ONE – John 14:15-24
- DAY TWO – Genesis 3
- DAY THREE – 1 Samuel 15
- DAY FOUR – Romans 2:5-11
- DAY FIVE – Acts 5:12-42

Memory Verse:

"If you love me, you will obey my commands." --
Jesus (John 14:15)
