

Living a Life of Significance
Week 2 of 2
Mark 6:7-13; 30-44

Several years ago I was a part of a small group with a friend who was working with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship at Georgetown University. As we shared prayer requests at the end of one of our meetings, my friend said their ministry needed a computer, and I said I'd pray for him. I started praying that God would provide a computer, and then I felt as if God interrupted me. It's hard to describe the tone I heard from God. It was stern but not unkind. It was as if the Holy Spirit whispered these words in my spirit: Why are you asking Me? You're the one with the extra computer!

So I quit praying midsentence and decided to do something about it. I told my friend I had a computer that I wanted to give him. And I became the answer to my own prayer. Why ask God to do something for us when it is within our power to do something about it ourselves?

There are some things you don't need to pray about. [Mark Batterson, Wild Good Chase (Multnomah Books, 2008), pp. 26-27]

This week's Daily Bible Reading will survey a few examples of God's people getting up and doing the work of the kingdom.

DAY ONE – Mark 6:30-44
DAY TWO – James 1:19-2:26
DAY THREE – Acts 8
DAY FOUR – Nehemiah 1-3
DAY FIVE – Nehemiah 4-6

Memory Verse:

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” (James 1:22)

northeast daily reading

January 2, 2011

Living a Life of Significance
Week 2 of 2
Mark 6:7-13; 30-44

Several years ago I was a part of a small group with a friend who was working with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship at Georgetown University. As we shared prayer requests at the end of one of our meetings, my friend said their ministry needed a computer, and I said I'd pray for him. I started praying that God would provide a computer, and then I felt as if God interrupted me. It's hard to describe the tone I heard from God. It was stern but not unkind. It was as if the Holy Spirit whispered these words in my spirit: Why are you asking Me? You're the one with the extra computer!

So I quit praying midsentence and decided to do something about it. I told my friend I had a computer that I wanted to give him. And I became the answer to my own prayer. Why ask God to do something for us when it is within our power to do something about it ourselves?

There are some things you don't need to pray about. [Mark Batterson, Wild Good Chase (Multnomah Books, 2008), pp. 26-27]

This week's Daily Bible Reading will survey a few examples of God's people getting up and doing the work of the kingdom.

DAY ONE – Mark 6:30-44
DAY TWO – James 1:19-2:26
DAY THREE – Acts 8
DAY FOUR – Nehemiah 1-3
DAY FIVE – Nehemiah 4-6

Memory Verse:

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” (James 1:22)

northeast daily reading

January 2, 2011