The Knees – A Healthy Posture Week 3 of 6

President Theodore Roosevelt's love of the outdoors is well documented. He was responsible for the creation of several national parks and monuments. In his first inaugural address, he spoke freely of the blessings of God upon our nation, saying, "I reverently invoke for my guidance the direction and favor of Almighty God."

It is said that when President Roosevelt entertained diplomatic guests at the White House he was fond of taking them out to the back lawn at the end of the day. As the president stood gazing at the night sky, all eyes would eventually be cast heavenward, as his were. In his day, the vast array of stars was not dimmed by the city lights, and the magnificent display of God's brilliant creation would overcome the party. After a long moment, Mr. Roosevelt would say, "Gentlemen, I believe we are small enough now. Let's go to bed." [E-mail from the Presidential Prayer Team (6-21-02)]

This week's daily reading will continue our journey through the book of Proverbs. Look especially for verses that speak to humility and pride.

- DAY ONE – Proverbs 11
- DAY TWO – Proverbs 12
- DAY THREE – Proverbs 13
- DAY FOUR – Proverbs 14
- DAY FIVE – Proverbs 15

Memory Verse:

"When pride comes, then comes disgrace,
but with humility comes wisdom." (Proverbs 11:2)
